Foreword

Early on the morning of August 28 our old Alma Mater, Winslow High School, went up in flames. 'Mid the smoke and flames, teachers, students, parents, and firemen wept as they all worked together salvaging what they could from the burning high school.

After many desperate hours the fire was conquered. It was then that the real work began. Other schools were very sympathetic and offered us anything we could make use of. Our science department used Holbrook's labs once a week, typewriters were loaned to us, and many other educational facilities were made available.

With the co-operation of the Junior High, school started the following week. Thus sharing the Junior High we attended school in split shifts until we entered the rebuilt W.H.S. on March 6.

Our book begins with that eventful day of the fire showing you pictures of the destruction, the various buildings used for school while W.H.S. was being repaired, the activities and the fun we had during the year, the students and our faculty and administration without whose help and support we never could have had such a good year.

We have tried to give you the highlights of this year and show you how Winslow High School's faculty and students functioned without a school to call their own.

"The Halls of Ivy" in ruin.

At least our hard earned trophies were saved.

Knowledge well consumed.

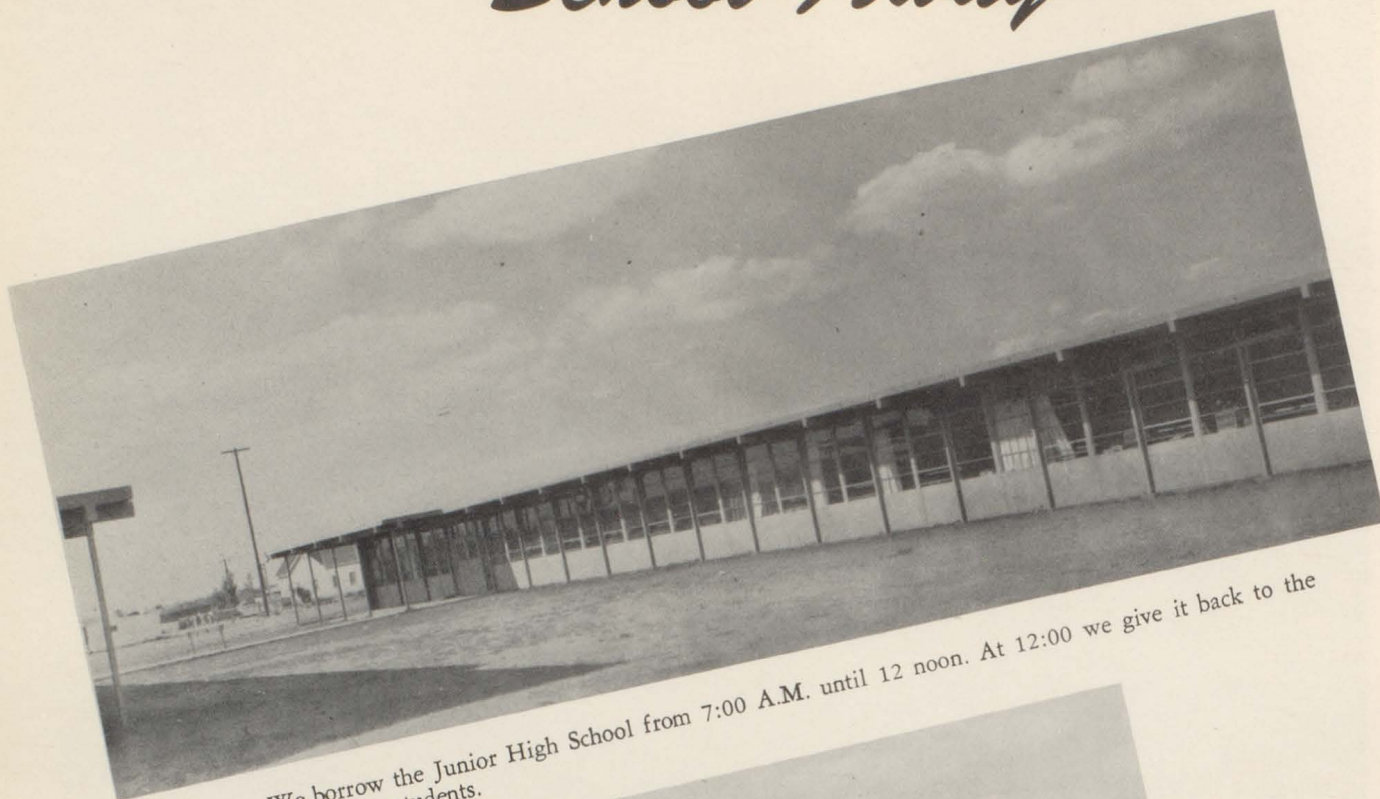

Spectators gather with heavy hearts to helplessly watch Winslow's high school burn.

Recognize this? This used to be the typing room.

School Away

We borrow the Junior High School from 7:00 A.M. until 12 noon. At 12:00 we give it back to the junior high students.

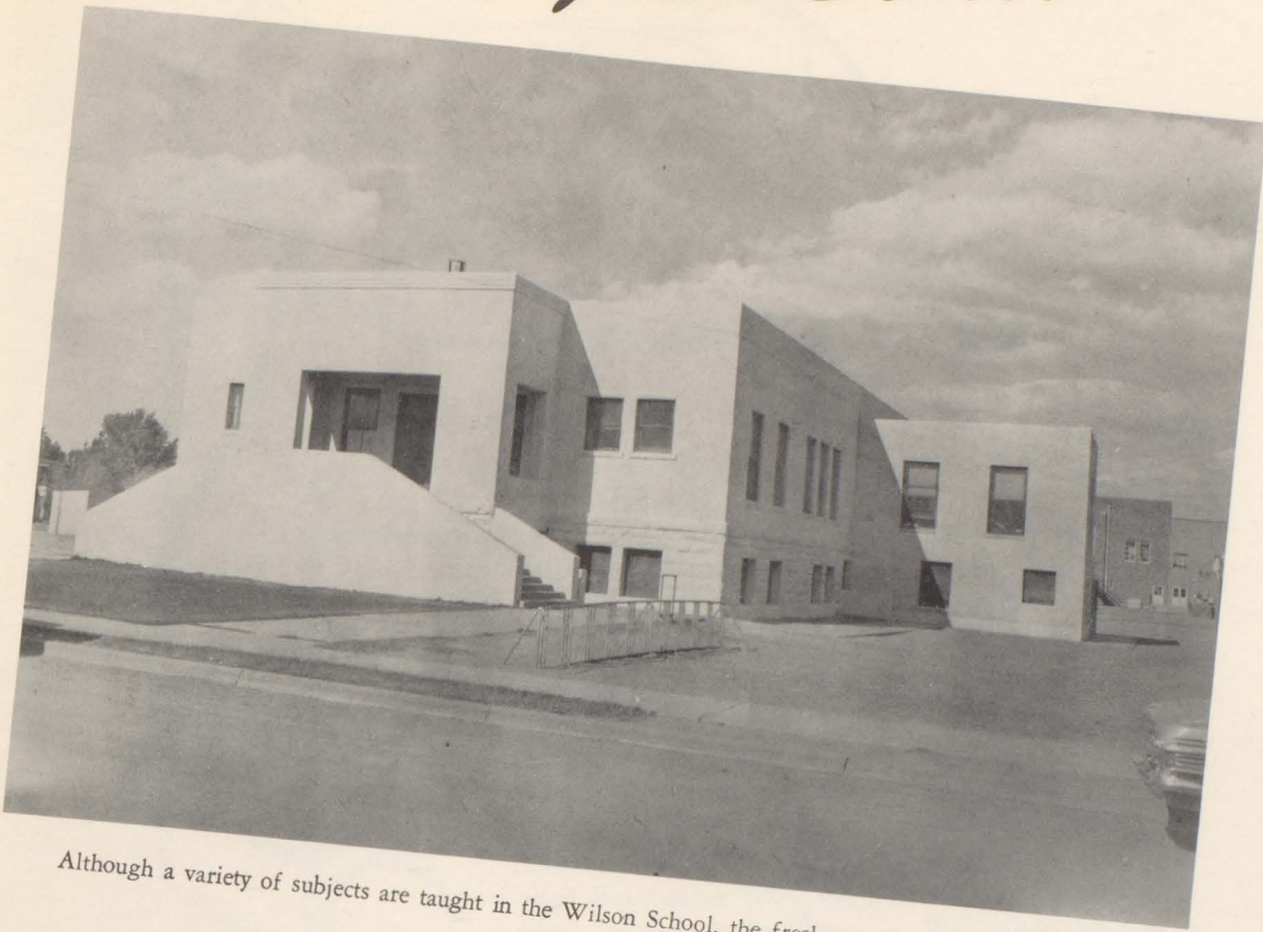

The Library serves a dual purpose—library and study hall.

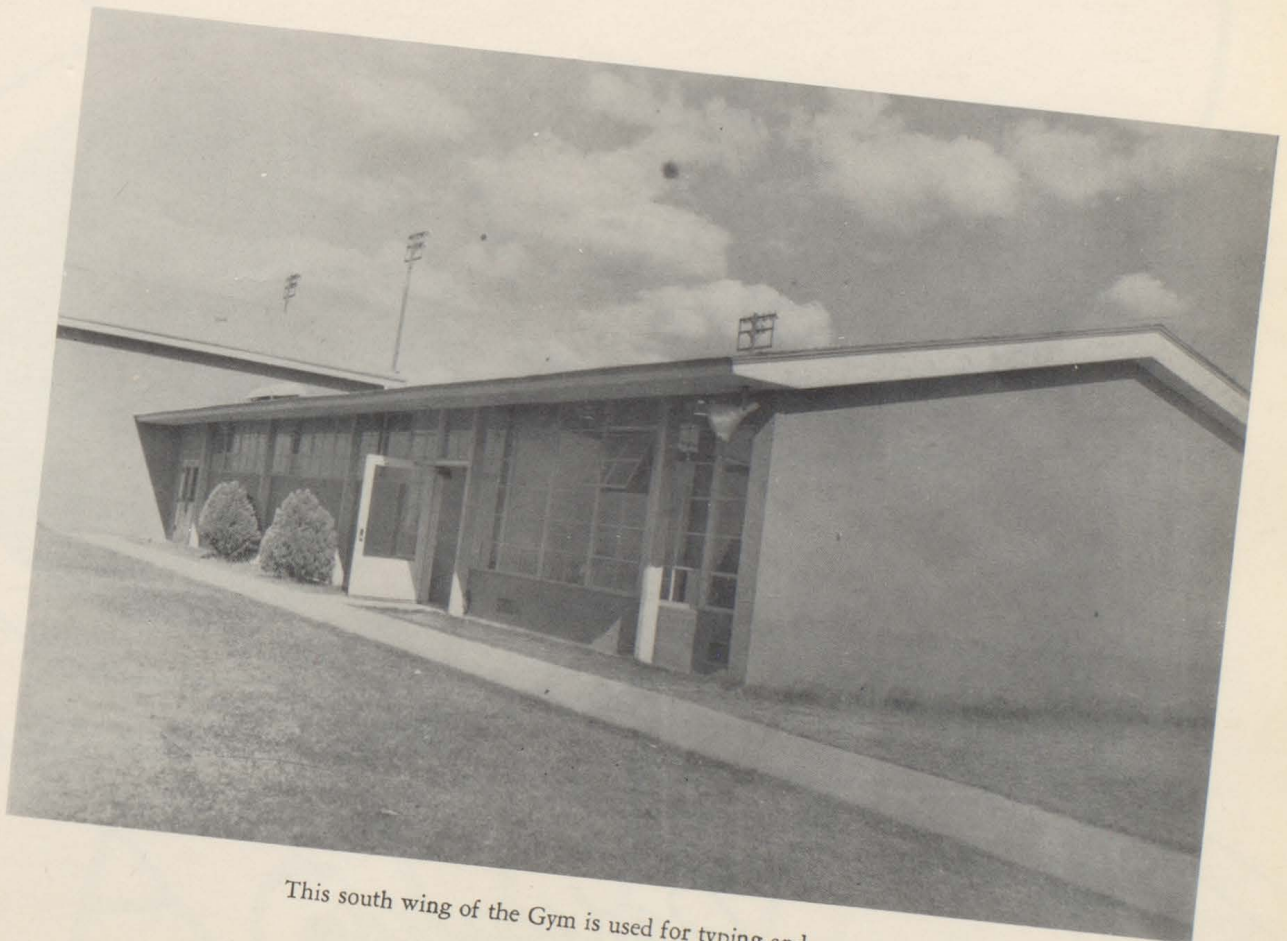

The girls use the Scout House for home economics.

From School

Although a variety of subjects are taught in the Wilson School, the freshmen are the main occupants.

This south wing of the Gym is used for typing and commerce.

Progress and achievement in this complex world of ours is not automatic, but is rather the result of hard work and ability. Our world grows better because some people wish that it should and then take the right steps to make it better. To be of value in the delicate process of living, a person must have a knowledge of life as it is. This person must also be a patient collector of facts, and must understand people well enough to inspire confidence and arouse positive action. We honor such a person today who for many years has given wisdom, understanding, and inspired students to higher achievement. To this person we humbly dedicate our 1961 annual and hope that this token will, in part, pay her for the many happy hours she has given us.

Plays and Activities

Convict Jules (Richard Oliver) steals a chicken for Christmas dinner.

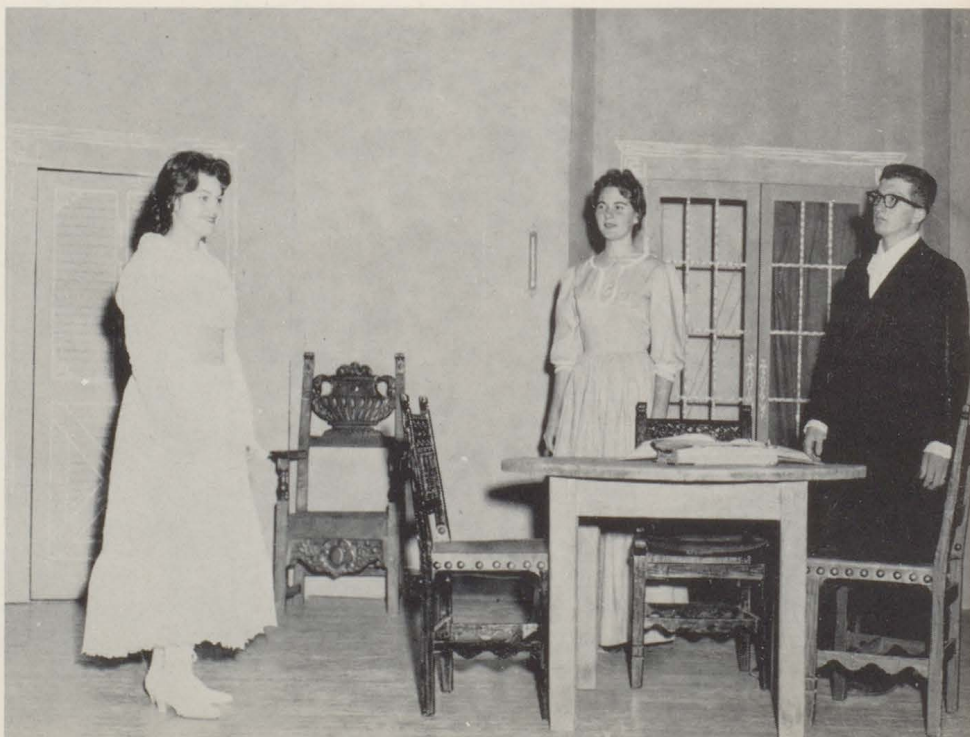

The shrewd uncle (James Nagle) and his spineless nephew (Jerry Brown) are unwanted guests Christmas Eve.

Jules (Richard Oliver), Alfred (Melvin Ylarraz), and Joseph (Sam Jordan) were surprised when Marie Louise (Peggy Baxter) fainted.

The Lieutenant (Gerry Robb) adds to a perfect ending.

Marie Louise and her parents, Emilie and Felix Ducotel.

Senior Play

Madame Parole (Carole Stratton) buys her yearly Christmas surprise for her husband from Emilie and Felix Ducotel.

Will Alfred drop Marie Louise before Emilie Ducotel gives him a chance to put her down?

Faye Davis, Byron Allen (stage managers) James Nagel, Sam Jordan, Charity Davis, Peggy Baxter, Carole Ann Stratton, Bill Hatch, and Christy Queen (prompter)

"My Three Angels" by Sam and Bella Spewack is a Christmas story about a family living in Cayenne, French Guiana.

The story involves three convicts and their humorous efforts in trying to smooth over a romance between two young people.

The young man, however, is dominated by a tyrannical uncle who tries to keep the couple apart.

Although in the end all the efforts of the convicts have been in vain, the ending turns out better than expected.

Talkative Rebecca, Ann Royer, fails to interrupt the deep thoughts of Emily Webb and George Gibbs, played by Trudy Rhoton and Robert E. Lee.

Junior Play

The setting for the play, "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder, is a small town in New Hampshire named Grovers Corners. In the first act the history of the town is genially outlined by the stage manager. The audience is carried into the homes of Gibbs and Webb families and spends an entire day in the lives of these people.

The second act is concerned with the love life between George Gibbs and Emily Webb, and thus culminates in a moving wedding scene.

The third act takes place in the cemetery, where many of the townspeople are awaiting not "judgement" but greater understanding. Into their midst is led the bride, a little timid at first, a little wishful to go back to life, to live again with her memories. But she is shown how impossible it is to return and that truth is to be found only in the future.

Dr. Gibbs, played by Scott Petterson, discusses the news with Howie Newsome, played by Willard Rose.

Robert Montano, minister, performs the wedding ceremony of Emily and George Gibbs witnessed by friends and family.

The funeral of the young bride.

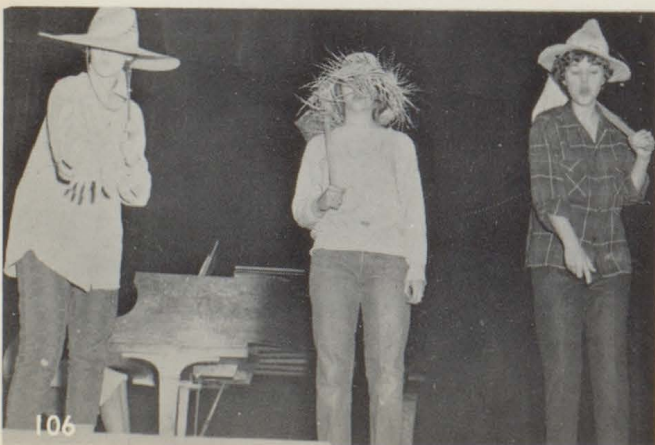

Madrigal singing "Dancing and Springing." Members are Bill Hatch, Daniel Garnett, Harry Bowler, Alvin Hogsett, John Jenkins, Claire Kirkland, Sandra Bates, Trudy Rhoton, Alana Hill, and Martha Hopper.

The class history was read by Jeanie Christie, Claudia Edwards, Valla Jo Lee, and Cheryl Lowe.

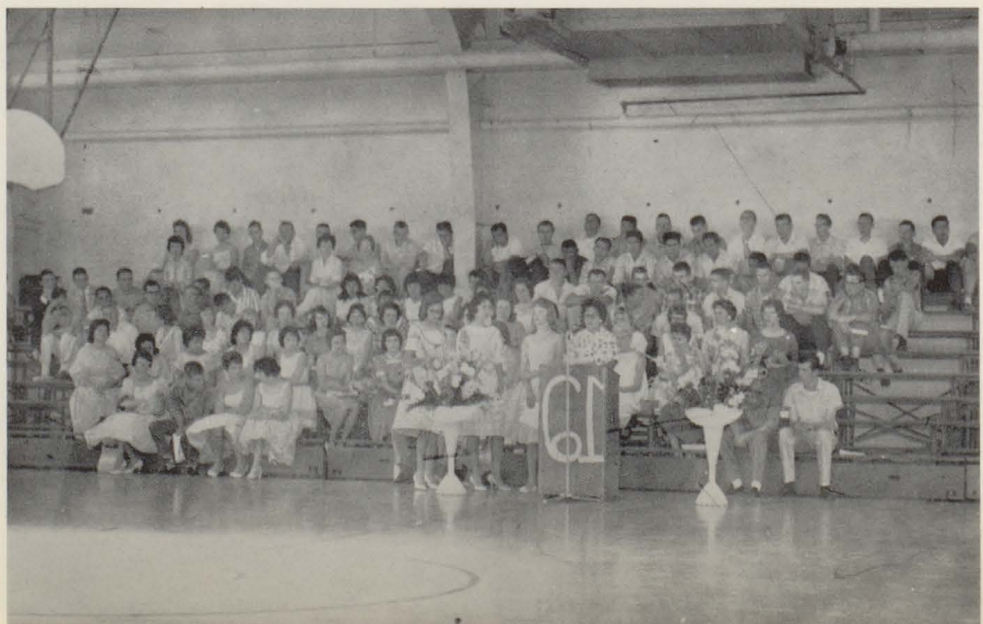

I, JOHN DAY, being of sound mind and strong body, hereby will to the students of general shop my ability to drill a hole in a pipe.

CHARITY DAVIS—having graduated from Stanford, she has gotten her degree as a pediatrician. Her sign reads "Cheaper by the Dozen."

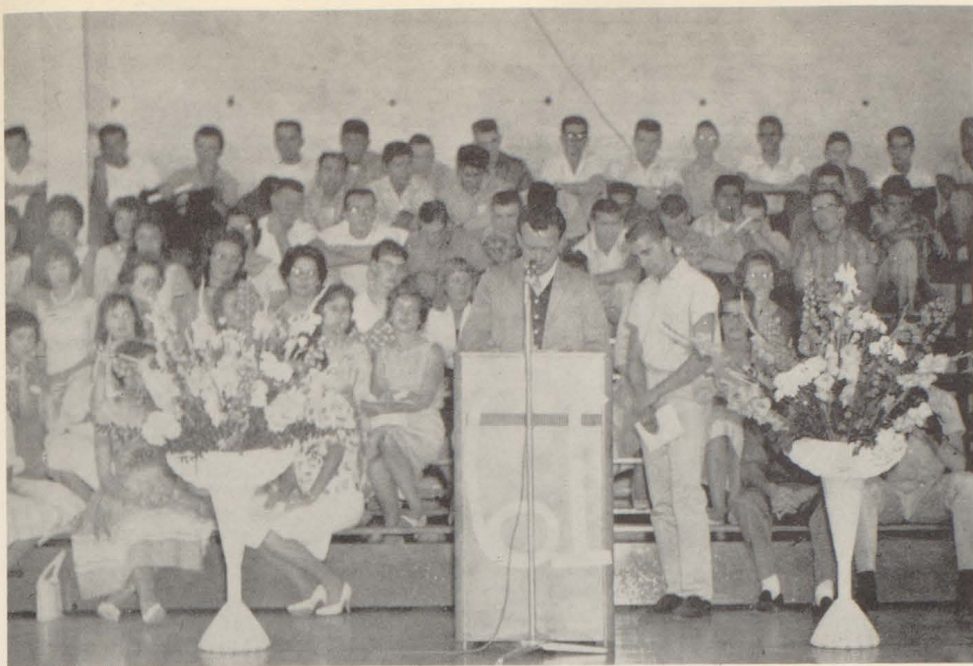

FRED COFFEY and HELEN KOLOMITZ—have decided that they dance so well together that they have made it a permanent "twosome." and who knows before long we may have a new and different kind of coffee!!!

I, JEANIE CHRISTIE, being of weak mind after 12 whole years of attendance in the Winslow Public Schools, do bequeath and just plain give, all the following names that I have acquired to Jeanne Scott. Jeanie Houdini, Jeanie in the Polka Dot Bikini, Jeanie with the light brown hair, and Jeanie Can Do.

Cheryl Lowe reads the class history which took place during the grammar school years.

Sam Jordan and Gerry Robb read part of the class wills.

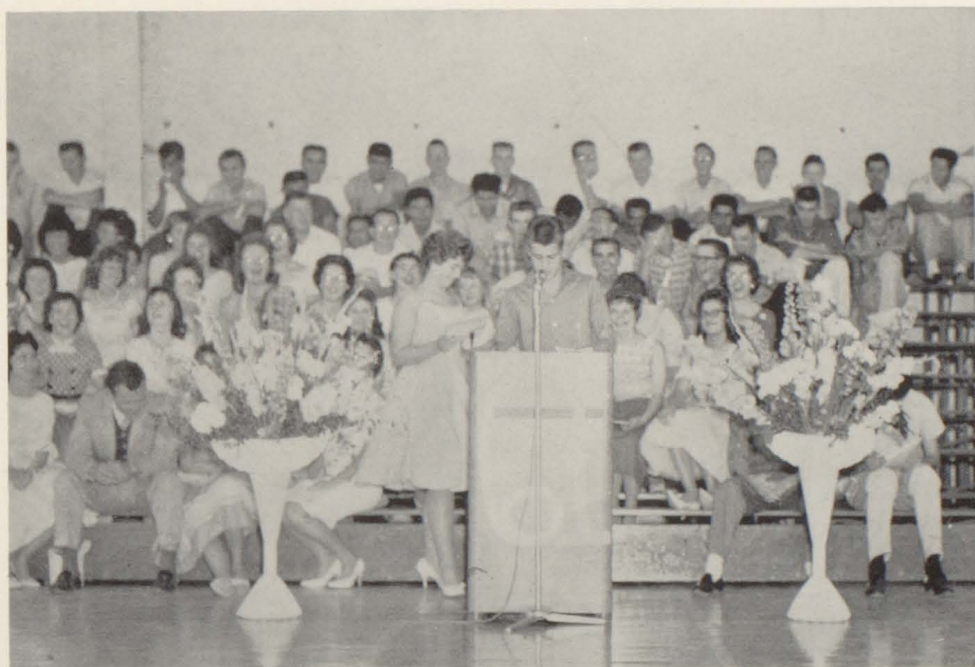

RICHARD OLIVER—is now recording the story of his life, "Run Away."

CRANSTON HYSONG—is now making small change; particularly little nichols.

MAX FOSTER—has now invented a new vanishing cream—"Lard Away."

NED EMIG—Along with Jim Beam was last seen heading west toward Sunny Brook with an old crow on his shoulder and a bouquet of four roses in his hand.

JOHN DAY—is now working for Cyr & Evans and is foreman of the DRILLING CREW.

Melvin Ylarraz and Sue Gale Bolton present the class prophecies.

GERRY ROBB—enrolled in a Judo course and graduated with a black belt and is now ready to tackle Betty.

JUDY DIERCKS—and Gorgeous George are now a famous tag team, WRESTLING, that is.

Richard Oliver presented the Key Award to this year's outstanding junior, Judy Odle.

Graduating

Here 'mid the skies and the desert's beauty
And mountain ranges blue,
Touched by the ever-gleaming sunlight
And desert moonlight too,
So we pay homage to you, our High School,
Pledging that we'll be true—
With voice and hand and heart saluting,
Here's our toast to you.

Class of 1961

With a hep, hep, hep we march along,
Winslow High, to you we're true.
With a hep, hep, hep and a cheering song,
Fighting, working and rooting for you.
You're our pride and honor, Winslow High,
You're our inspiration too—
For your learning we're yearning,
Hope high is burning—
That's our toast to you.

Acknowledgments

At this time I would like to acknowledge just a few people without whose help your yearbook would never have been possible.

Mr. Gordon W. Terrill: Our sponsor. Many thanks go to him for his understanding help and patience and for working after hours to help us meet our deadlines.

To my hard working photographers goes a special thank you for they worked long, late hours taking and printing pictures for your yearbook.

To Mr. James Curtis, our beloved principal, goes a sincere thank you for writing such a lovely dedication.

Mr. Harry Summers of the Winslow Photo Supply and his assistant, Mrs. Frances Herrera, helped us beyond compare. Without their extra work and effort many pictures in this book would not have been possible.

With sincere gratitude I would like to thank my staff for their co-operation; and a special thank you to my assistant editor, Peggy Baxter, who was a constant help.

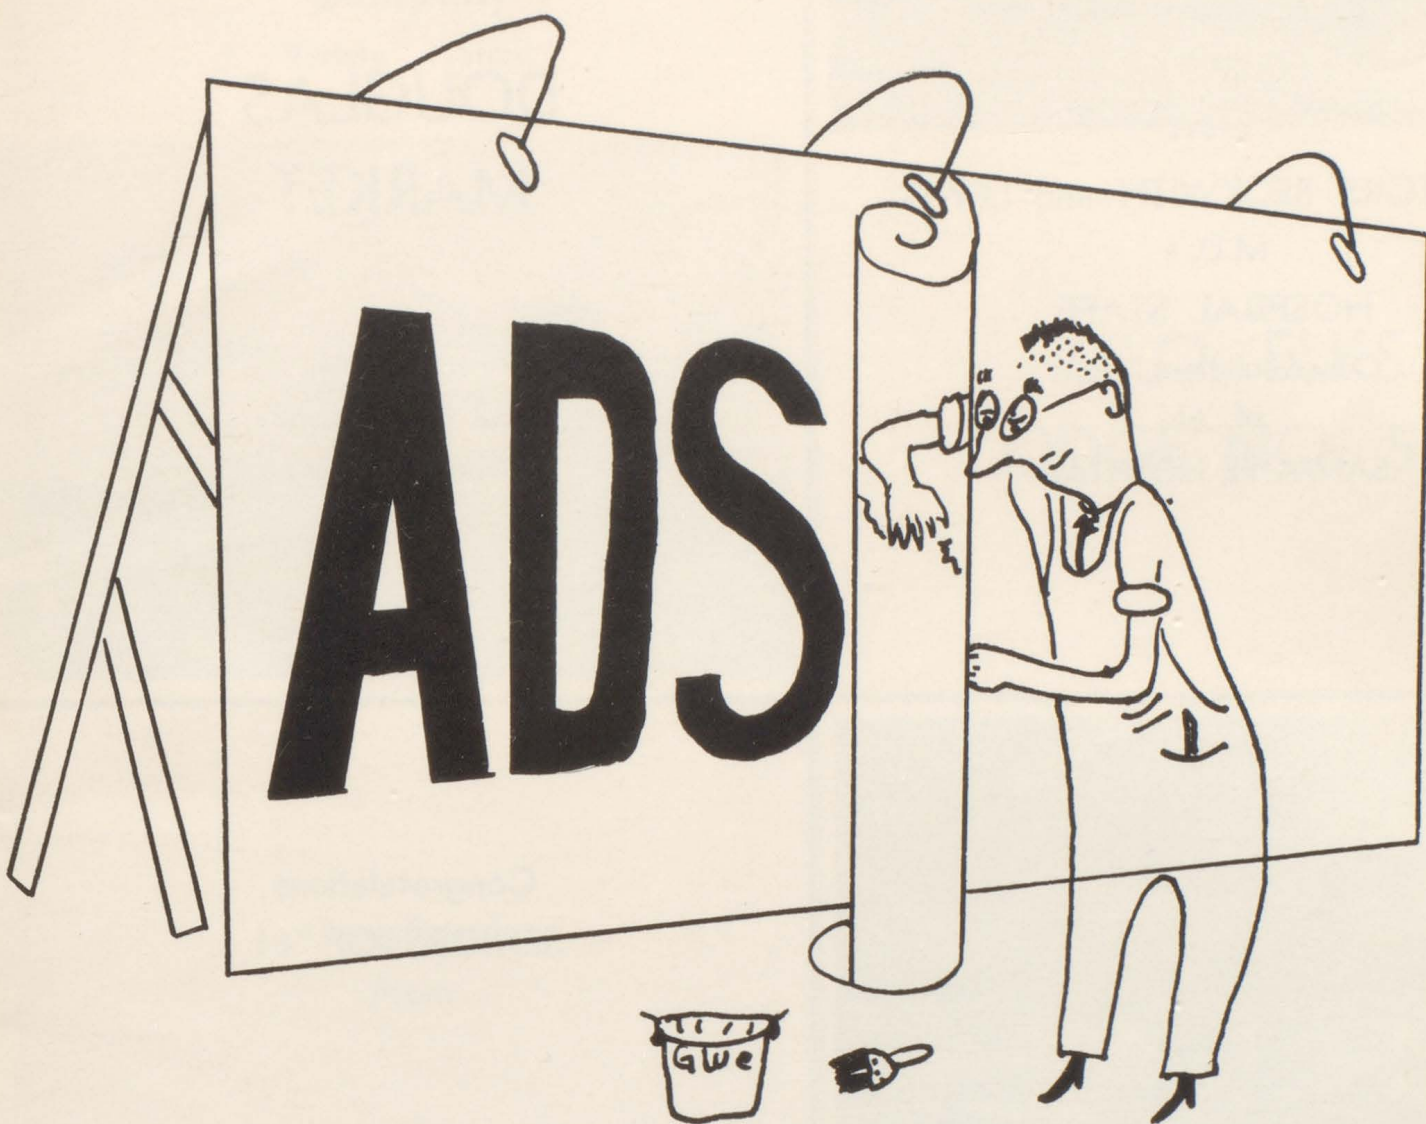

This is your yearbook and I sincerely hope that you enjoy reading it as much as I have enjoyed editing it.

MAN WITH A PLAN

He's an Arizona Public Service Company engineer. Why is his work important to you? Because very soon now, you'll have a much larger stake in the future of Arizona. In the business world, with a family of your own, the future of our state will be in your hands. That's why this engineer, and many other Arizona Public Service Company employees who plan today for tomorrow's power requirements, are, indeed, important people in your lives. They'll see to it that utility service is always available to accommodate growing Arizona—America at its Best!
